U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICEAPPLICATION TRANSFER REQUEST FOR S.N. 10021030*Section I. TRANSFER REQUEST BYName BECK, SHRIVE P Date 3/26/2003TO: Art Unit 2852 Class/sub 399/FROM: A.U. 1762 Class 427*REASON:

Sole disclosed utility for this application is a photoreceptor for an imaging area. Class 428 will not take it because it is not a stock material. Since your class is directed to electrophotography, and that is the only utility for this article/device could you please still me where it does go in the universe of electrophotography? something other than Gatekeeper concurrence "not 399 subject matter" would be helpful in specifying the proper home for this case. If you don't know where could you give me a reason why it doesn't go to 399 because the definition appears to indicate that devices for electrophotography go to 329
